Student Services and Curriculum Development

DIA staff consult with teachers prior to field trips to ensure that students continue to have meaningful, educational experiences that connect to classroom learning. School field trip gallery teachers have expanded the repertoire of hands-on engagement strategies to further enhance all guided experiences

The DIA launched two new STEAM adventures, utilizing the Detroit Industry Murals in Rivera Court for grades 5-12 and in collaboration with DIA Conservation scientists in the galleries for grades 6-12.

A new guided field trip program was launched in order to support Social-Emotional Learning This program was designed to meet the SEL needs of schools and make connections between SEL themes and art.

This year the DIA expanded the Meaning Through Art-Making program with 3rd – 12th graders. DIA studio instructors led learner-centered gallery tours and hands-on artmaking.

Teachers from Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties met in January, March, and June to advise DIA staff and provide input on professional development workshops and online curriculum resources. There was an intentional focus to engage our Teacher Advisory Group around issues of inclusivity, diversity, equity, and access.

In the fall of 2019, three new educators (one from each county) joined the current Teacher Advisory Group cohort for a 2-year term in order to bring new perspectives to the team while allowing experienced TAG teachers to mentor new members.

The DIA hosted “Homeschool Afternoons” at the museum in February and June featuring art-making and guided tours.

Free Student Field Trips with Bus Transportation

The DIA provides free field trips, free transportation, and access to K-12 students across Metro Detroit each year.

41,386 Wayne County residents participated in no-cost school field trips to the DIA. Complimentary transportation was provided to all groups.

In support of DPSCD's cultural passport program, all 2nd grade students visit the museum for a guided field trip experience.

The DIA provided the following customized Professional Development Days:

In February, the DIA hosted a DPSCD meeting for new art teachers. Professional development workshops for were also held in March to develop a new jurying process for the DPSCD Student Art Exhibition and support teachers participating in the Student Art Exhibition with matting supplies and assistance over the course of four workshops.

In April, the DIA hosted Wayne RESA Aspiring Administrators for two afternoons of tours and an overview of educational programs.

In May, DIA Studio Instructors hosted U-M Dearborn Early Childhood Education Center for an Art-Making workshop.

In June, the DIA hosted the Livonia Summer Institutes "Teaching Beyond the Textbook" workshop for a tour of K-12 field trip options and debrief discussion to explore classroom connections.

The DIA hosted the Association of Independent Michigan Schools for a Visual Thinking Strategies workshop in March.

In collaboration with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra the DIA developed Look. Listen. Connect - a multimedia concert combining music with art from the DIA's collection in April. The program was part of the DSO's live educational concert series, facilitated by DSO musicians with DIA education programs staff and webcast to classrooms nationwide.

In July, the DIA hosted the American Association of Teachers of French - Detroit Chapter for a VTS Workshop in French using objects created by French artists. The workshop helped teachers understand how to use VTS and art to teach French language.

The DPSCD New Teachers Institute were introduced to VTS and engagement strategies appropriate for various grade levels, including special education, during a two-day event in July. An overview of DIA education programs emphasizing teacher workshops and field trips was provided.

In August, The DIA Studio presented a hands-on workshop for teachers from Basilica of St. Mary Montessori Academy, which included an exploration of the galleries, alternative art-making materials, and collaborative art-making projects with applications for learners in their classrooms.

In August, the DIA hosted Social Studies educators from Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb counties. Grade-level-appropriate tours were offered, demonstrating how the DIA's collection can support the Michigan Social Studies curriculum. Opportunities for further professional development were discussed.

VTS trainings were conducted for new and veteran teachers of Vista Meadows Academy during a two-day workshop in August.

Wayne County Community College District educators were introduced to VTS during a workshop hosted at their campus in August.

In October, teaching staff at Detroit School of the Arts were introduced to VTS. This was held at the DSA and a second day of training was provided in November.

The DIA provided VTS training for the Inside Out Literary Arts poets and writers in November. This workshop demonstrated how the DIA's collection can be used for writing prompts, in addition to giving the poets skills for engaging students.

Teachers at Clarenceville High School and Vista Meadows welcomed DIA educators to discuss VTS and other engagement strategies in November.

In December, the DIA and Wayne RESA hosted a meeting and training for teachers of Middle Eastern studies. This training included tours of the Ancient Middle Eastern and Islamic galleries. A workshop was also held for Henry Ford Community College Preservice Teachers.

Senior Program Thursdays at the Museum

The DIA's Thursdays at the Museum program, provides tri-county residents 55+ with a different museum experience each Thursday of the month including free group transportation and concluding with coffee reception.

In 2019, the DIA continued to attract new audiences for the Thursdays at the Museum by broadening the menu of programs. A selection of special offerings is highlighted below:

Art Bingo: seniors learned about the DIA's collection through an art-themed bingo event.

America Let's Exercise: participants enjoyed a local senior dance group and presentation focused on healthy living and exercise habits for older adults.

In the Garden: seniors attended a special talk exploring the hidden meanings behind images of flowers, plants, and gardens in some of the DIA's favorite works of art.

Mother's Day Music: attendees enjoyed a performance featuring jazz, Latin, vocal, contemporary, and classical sounds.

Due to the success of these new programs, the DIA will continue to incorporate special offerings alongside the regular rotation of private film screenings, tours of galleries and exhibitions, and hands-on artmaking opportunities. From August through December, 50 interviews were held with Thursdays at the Museum program participants. Results will be analyzed and will impact future program planning.

The DIA welcomed 103 senior groups to the museum with more than 2,900 residents participating in TATM. All groups were offered complimentary bus transportation.

Community Collaborations with Local Arts Organizations and Cities, Townships and Villages

Inside|Out

Through partnerships with more than 120 tri-county community organizations the DIA's Inside|Out program brings high quality art reproductions to engage residents with art in the places where they live, work and play.

Wayne County Spring Inside|Out communities included:

Wayne State University and North Corktown

Wayne County Summer Inside|Out communities included:

Belle Isle, Detroit River Front, and Dequindre Cut

In 2019, partnerships were launched with the Wayne County Airport Authority and the Michigan Secretary of State to expand Inside|Out to indoor locations.

Reproductions were installed in the North Terminal of the Detroit Metro Airport and the following Wayne County Secretary of State branch offices: West Wayne County, Canton Livonia Area Super Center
Detroit Livernois Detroit Bagley.

DIA Away

DIA Away: Think Like an Artist, provides art experiences at community events and schools throughout Wayne County.

More than 5,300 residents visited DIA Away at the following locations:

Community Group Artmaking Program

The DIA partners with local social service to provide artmaking experiences to groups through the Community Group Program.

Sessions begin with a Visual Thinking tour in the galleries followed by an art-making experience in the studio.

Participating groups included:

Mariners Inn
Piquette Square for Veterans
John D. Dingell VA Medical Center
Tri-County Veterans
SASHA/Sexual Assault for Holistic Healing and Awareness

In 2019, the DIA began partnering with tri-county veteran navigators, to offer several Open Houses for Veterans, including themed tours, hands-on artmaking, a slideshow of art projects done at the DIA with the John D. Dingell VA Medical Center, and sharing of local resources for veterans.

The August Veteran Open House resulted in a collaborative 'slat book,' which was featured in the 11th Annual Community Group Art Exhibition, and at the December open house, veterans helped the DIA create over 100 handmade bowls that were donated to the Detroit Empty Bowls project to benefit Cass Community Social Services.

Community Group Art Exhibition

The DIA hosts an annual art exhibition for participants in the Community Group Program.

An opening reception was held for the 11th Annual Community Group Art Exhibition in December.

The event, open to artists and their guests, included a slideshow, refreshments, and an opportunity for participants to speak about their work as well as view the exhibition. 182 artists created work installed in the Family Room Gallery at the DIA featuring works from the following groups:

CARE of Southeastern Michigan
Grace Centers of Hope
Hannan Center
Mariners Inn
Piquette Square for Veterans
The John D. Dingell VA Medical Center
Tri-County Veterans Navigators

Partners in Public Art

The DIA collaborates with communities, nonprofit organizations, and municipalities in Wayne County to design and create meaningful works of public art.

In Wayne County, the DIA worked with Hannan Center in Detroit to create a relief sculpture on the facade of their building along Woodward Avenue. Each tile was created by Hannan Center participants at sessions held in the DIA studio.

The DIA continues to work with the Plymouth Downtown Development Authority and the Plymouth Community Arts Council to create a public sculpture near Kellogg Park in Downtown Plymouth.

Art project installation at Hannan Center

Inside Out Literary Arts

The DIA collaborates with Inside Out Literary Arts to engage young writers in art, poetry workshops and readings.

In November and December, the DIA hosted six Inside Out Literary Art Writing Workshops for participants ages 12 and up, led by writers-in-residence. Participants wrote poetry inspired by artworks in the following museum's special exhibitions:

Detroit Collects: Selections of African American Art from Private Collections
Michigan's Great Lakes: Photographs by Jeff Gaydash

Wayne County Community College District

The DIA and WCCCD develops partnerships to raise visibility and awareness for both institutions, build new audiences, and increase appreciation for the relevance of the arts and continued education in everyday lives.

Highlights of the partnership agreement include: Senior Thursday bus trips to the museum for WCCCD's Silver Circle Program, Introduction to Visual Thinking Strategies for faculty, field trips for dual enrollment students and Inside|Out installations on multiple campuses.

A kick-off event was held in November at WCCCD's downtown campus.

Brilliant Detroit

The DIA hosts Family Days at the museum for Brilliant Detroit, an organization that provides programming and support year-round to families in high-need neighborhoods, including Southwest, Osborn, Central, Fitzgerald, Brightmoor, Cody Rouge, and Springwells.

The partnership featured free transportation for Brilliant Detroit children, their families, and chaperones. Activities focused on introducing participants to the array of free family programming that the DIA offers every weekend, such as artmaking in the studio and gallery games. Special guided gallery experiences, led by members of the DIA's gallery teaching staff, were also offered to attendees.

Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History

The DIA co-presents a series of performance at the CHWMAAH as part of the annual Concert of Colors, Detroit's annual free diversity themed music festival.

Performances by DJ Equad, Sanna Su, Boog Brown, Pamela Wise Ensemble, David McMurray & The Black Light Collective, were attended by more than 3,500 residents over the course of the afternoon and evening.

Ofrenda Exhibition

In celebration of Dia de Muertos, the Detroit Institute of Arts, in partnership with Detroit's Mexican Consulate, presents a community exhibition of Ofrenda altars.

Celebrating el Día de Muertos was on view during regular museum hours and included with general museum admission from October - November.

The exhibit and associated programs attracted 49,000 visitors

Arab American National Museum

The Detroit Film Theatre presents film screenings in partnership with the Arab Film Festival and the Arab American National Museum.

Programs were attended by 450 residents and included The Arab World Shorts program featuring the work of seven directors representing Tunisia, Lebanon, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Syria and Yemen. The following day a new feature length Algerian film, Sofia, was presented with an audience discussion afterwards.

Concert of Colors

As the main venue for Concert of Colors, the DIA presents Detroit's free annual diversity-themed music festival.

This nine-day festival aims to unite metro Detroit's diverse communities and ethnic groups through music and dance acts from around the world. Attendance for the weekend event was 18,000 participants and featured the following events and performances at the museum.

Children's Hospital of Michigan Healing Arts

DIA studio artists provide art-making workshops to patients and their families at Children's Hospital of Michigan in Detroit.

Workshops occur bedside and in common areas of the hospital, such as waiting rooms, activity rooms, and lobbies every week throughout the year.

Scholastic Art Awards

The Detroit Film Theater presents the award ceremony for the 2019 Southeastern Michigan Region of the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards competition.

The DIA partnered with Detroit's College for Creative Studies to coordinate the event, attended by approximately 2,000 students, family members, and guests over two days.

Detroit Public Schools Student Art Show

In partnership with Detroit Public Schools Community District the DIA presents the 82nd Student Art Exhibition.

The exhibition, on view in April & May, featured work created by DPSCD students in kindergarten through 12th grade. Media ranged from paintings, prints, drawings, photography, ceramics, videos, jewelry and more.

The opening and awards ceremony for the show was held in the Crystal Gallery. DIA staff served as part of the jury that selected art to be included in the exhibition.

County Leaders Events

County leaders are invited to attend receptions twice a year to highlight new exhibitions and gallery openings.

County leaders attended the following events:

June
