Student Services and Curriculum Development

The DIA continued to increase K–12 services in Oakland County and exceed service agreement targets for student and teacher participation. Field trip options expanded in response to teachers' requests. Guided tours engaged students with hands-on activities. Second grade classrooms were a newly added audience for guided visits. Professional development connected K–12 educators with museum educators to explore student engagement strategies and/or to design specific curriculum resources in support of teachers' learning goals. These collaboratively developed resources created experiences for students that utilized artwork in the museum as a resource for learning across the curriculum.

Free Student Field Trips with Bus Transportation

In 2016, 20,871 individuals participated in no-cost field trips to the DIA, exceeding the service agreement requirement of 16,000. Complimentary transportation was provided to all student groups.

Art Discovery Program

United Oaks Elementary in Hazel Park participated in the Art Discovery Program in 2016. All fourth- and fifth-graders came to the DIA for five visits that included guided exploration of the galleries and hands-on art making in the studio.

Homeschool Programs

Homeschool Family Days engaged 180 tri-county students and their families in gallery exploration and tours.

 - October—Birmingham art teachers & instructional coaches: VTS (day 1)
- November-- Oakland University preservice teachers: social studies connections
 - December—Clarkston art teachers: curriculum resource development
 - December—Birmingham art teachers & instructional coaches: VTS (day 2)

Senior Program

In 2016, the DIA implemented a new senior program, Senior Thursdays, providing tri-county seniors with a different museum experience each Thursday of the month. Offerings included gallery tours, art-making sessions, lectures and films shown in the Detroit Film Theatre. While the DIA’s previous senior program allowed organized groups to participate, the new Senior Thursday program allows for individuals to attend as well.

Seniors were offered lectures by DIA curators: Yao-Fen You on “Dining at the DIA, 18th-Century Style,” Valerie Mercer on “The Vicissitudes of African American Artists’ Depictions of Dance between 1800 and 1960,” Dr. Nii Quarcoopome

“Masterpieces of African Art in the DIA Collection” and Nancy Barr “The Open Road: Photography and the American Road Trip.” Behind the Scene lectures by DIA volunteers included: “In the Garden,” “Picturing Music,” “Ordinary People by Extraordinary Artists” Degas, Renoir and Friends” and “Coffee, Tea and Chocolate: New Designs for New Drinks.”

Art-making sessions included Zig Zag Books and Paper Flowers Tambourines, Uchiwa, Watercolor Postcards, Travel Journals, Sugar Skulls, Print-Making Notecards and Collage Portraits.

Film days featured No Maps on My Taps, Peggy Guggenheim: Art Addict, Good OL’Freda, Mystery of Picasso, Diplomacy, Diplomacy, and Antarctica: A Year on Ice and The Second Mother.

The DIA welcomed 82 senior groups to the museum with 2,580 seniors participating in Senior Thursdays. All groups were offered complimentary bus transportation.

County Days

County Days continued to be one of the DIA's signature access programs, providing bus transportation to the museum for residents on select Saturdays, twice in 2016.

The following community partners served as pickup locations for County Days.

April:

Auburn Hills Community Center
South Lyon High School
Clarkston Independence District Library
Farmington City Hall
Wixom Community Center
Downtown Pontiac

October:

Hunter Community Center in Clawson
Southfield Municipal Complex
Waterford Township Hall
Troy City Hall
Novi Civic Center

Art Beats and Eats

The DIA returned to Arts, Beats and Eats for the fourth year, as a sponsor and hosted daily demonstrations by area artists. DIA Away- a mobile, interactive learning experience attracted more than 5,000 participants to the children's area of the festival.

Exploring DIA Away at Arts Beats and Eats

Canvas Pontiac

In partnership with Pontiac Downtown Business Association and the City of Pontiac, the DIA supported Canvas Pontiac's efforts to bring art and culture to the community. The DIA also provided jurying and consulting services.

College Engagement

In October, the DIA hosted staff and faculty from community colleges in the tri-county region for an evening of networking and information about museum programs. Participants were provided complimentary transportation, a light reception and guided gallery tour. Staff from Oakland Community College attended.

Community Group Art Making

Macomb Oakland Regional Center (MORC) participated in Community Group Art Making Program at the DIA. Sessions began with a Visual Thinking tour in the galleries, followed by an art-making experience in the studio. Learner-centered teaching was employed throughout each visit, engaging each participant at their own individual skill level while encouraging personal expression and reflection. Two four-week sessions were held in 2016. The DIA provided transportation.

DIA studio artist works with participant from MORC

The DIA hosted the eighth annual Community Group Show in the fall where participants shared their creative process and displayed their work.

Fairs and Festivals

DIA studio teaching artists provided art-making workshops to more than 2,000 participants at the following locations.

Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital - Hospital Week Celebration
Art on the Grand / Farmington
Orchard Lake Art Show / West Bloomfield
Dragon on the Lake / Lake Orion
Art & Apples / Rochester
DIY Art Fair / Ferndale

Arts and Health Symposium

In April, the DIA hosted the Arts & Health Symposium in partnership with Art & Healing Michigan. Two hundred and fifty participants from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties traveled to the DIA for the daylong meeting for presentations by leaders in arts and healthcare. The symposium featured presentations about arts and health programs from the DMC Children's Hospital of Michigan, Beaumont/Oakwood, Henry Ford Health Systems, U of M Health System, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Detroit Institute of Arts, Wayne State University School of Medicine and the Alzheimer's Association. The symposium included a panel discussion about the importance of using the arts to improve patient outcomes by CEO and presidents from DMC, Beaumont/Oakwood, Henry Ford Health Systems and University of Michigan Health System.

Minds on Art

The DIA continued the partnership with the Alzheimer Association of Michigan bringing individuals living with memory loss and dementia (including Alzheimer disease) and their care partners to the DIA for gallery discussions and hands-on studio workshops. Participation is free and available to residents in the tri-county area. Four sessions were held in 2016, for early-stage and mid-stage participants and their caregivers.

The partnership expanded to include activities for tri-county residents at the Alzheimer's Association offices in Southfield. DIA trained volunteers facilitated Visual Thinking Strategies sessions based on images of artwork from the DIA collection. Sessions were held five times in the winter months.

Inside|Out

Inside|Out is a key component of the DIA's community engagement efforts. Over the past seven years, the museum has collaborated with more than 100 tri-county community organizations and engaged tens of thousands of residents with art in places where they live, work and play.

In 2016, 25 tri-county communities applied to participate in Inside|Out with 22 communities participating in Spring-Summer program. New images were added to Inside|Out to increase the diversity of images in the collection and reflect the diversity of the communities that host Inside|Out. Some of the new images include Blue Madonna by Bob Thompson from our GM Center for African American Art collection and Poultry Yard by Melchior de Hondcoeter from our Dutch paintings collection.

Inside|Out communities:

Springfield Township
Pontiac
Commerce
Oxford
Lake Orion
Beverly Hills

The DIA collaborated with the Pontiac Downtown Development Corporation to bring Inside|Out back to downtown Pontiac for the third time. This year, locations and images were chosen to compliment the installations that were part of the 2016 Canvas Pontiac event. By placing DIA Inside|Out reproductions alongside Canvas Pontiac banners, the DIA was able to strengthen the impact of both partnerships.

The DIA brought Inside|Out to Beverly Hills for the first time in partnership with the Friends of Beverly Park. The Friends of Beverly Park enthusiastically planned many programs for to celebrate their participation including a flashlight tour in October attracting over 50 residents. The events featured presentations about the Inside|Out images in Beverly Park from a DIA docent.

A call for 2017 participation was released in September 2016.

Ofrenda Altars – Mexican Consulate in Detroit

A call for proposals was issued to tri-county residents and non-profit organizations for Ofrenda Altars- memorial displays to honor ancestors on the Mexican holiday: Day of the Dead. Selected artists participated in a panel discussion moderated by the staff of the Mexican Consulate in Detroit and their work was exhibited from October 21- Nov 6. Thirteen artists were given a stipend to create their works at the DIA, and were also invited to reception in their honor on November 6.

Art and Authors

Oakland County residents participated in Art and Authors book discussions at the DIA. Tri-county librarians, including staff from the Southfield and Bloomfield Township Public Libraries collaborated to facilitate discussions and participants learned about the DIA's collection through related guided gallery tours.

January—People of the Book, Geraldine Brooks

April—Shanghai Girls, Lisa See

July—Priceless: How I Went Undercover to Rescue the World's Stolen Treasures, Robert K. Wittman

A skype session was held with Robert K Wittman to compliment the discussion of his book at the DIA. In addition to regularly scheduled Art & Authors programming, Oakland County residents attended an author talk by New York Times best-selling author, Lisa See, hosted by the museum in April 2016. This special program was made available through partnership with the Metro Net Library Consortium and Everyone's Reading, an annual community-reading program.

Dance! American Art 1830–1960

In conjunction with the exhibition Dance! American Art 1830-1960, the DIA produced a variety of dance-themed events and workshops, including family workshops and the Tribute to Prince held on the Woodward plaza in front of the museum. Non-profit Oakland County partners included Eisenhower Dance Ensemble.

Dancers perform a selection from Swan Lake

Free Animated Films at the Detroit Film Theatre

Animated features were shown free of charge to residents of Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties in December at the DFT during the museum's extended holiday hours:

Alice in Wonderland, December 26 & 27
Kiki's Delivery Service, December 28 & 29
The Secret World of Arletty, December 30
Boy and the World, December 31

Support for Community Groups and Schools

The DIA supports schools and community groups in their fundraising efforts through donations of special exhibition tickets.

Michigan Student Film Festival

The Michigan Student Film Festival is unique in the nation for providing a public venue for the work of students in grades K-12, as well as giving recognition and significant awards to young media artists.

The DFT hosted DAFT's (Digital Arts and Film and Television) 48th Michigan Student Film Festival featuring screenings of Best of Show winners in two categories: K-8 and 9-12 grades.

County Leaders Event

County leaders attended a reception for Dance! American Art 1830-1960. DIA curators led tours of the exhibition.

Scholastic Art Awards

The Detroit Film Theater was the site for the award ceremony for the 2016 Southeastern Michigan Region of the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards competition. The DIA partnered with Detroit's College for Creative Studies to coordinate the event, attended by approximately 2,000 tri county students, family members, and guests over two days.

Director's Cut

DIA Director and CEO Salvador Salort-Pons presented Director's Cut talks in Oakland County to introduce himself to residents and provide an overview of the DIA's history and collections, including some of his favorite works of art, and share his vision for the museum. He also highlighted the many programs the DIA currently offers both inside and outside the museum's walls. All talks were followed by a question-and-answer period. Director's Cut locations included Senior men's Club of Birmingham at the Community House, Rochester Public Library, Birmingham YMCA, Birmingham Temple – Society of Active Retirees, Franklin Hills Country Club, Pontiac Creative Arts Center-Pontiac Arts Commission, Troy Community Center, and NEXT! Birmingham.

Additional Outreach

The DIA's conservation department collaborated with Detroit Public Television on a Virtual Field Trip providing access for students and teachers to a behind the scenes exploration of the conservation lab.

Transportation was provided for Interfaith Leadership Council of Metro Detroit's - Religious Diversities Journeys after school enrichment program. Students from Clarkston, Walled Lake, Farmington, Berkley, and Waterford participated. Transportation was also provided to the National Council of Jewish Women and Light of the World Christian Center.

DIA conservators provided consultation services to Temple Israel, Leonard N. Simons Jewish Community Archives, Clover Hill Park Cemetery, and the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit. A complimentary conservation tour was provided to the Bloomfield Hills Village Club.

Consultations and jurying services were provided to the Birmingham Community House – Student Art Town Exhibition, and Milford's VFAA Poetry and Art Night. DIA staff presented lectures at the Michigan School of Professional Psychology and West Bloomfield Public Library.
