

PROGRAMS FOR TEACHERS

To register for classes, call 313.833.4249 or e-mail parks@dia.org. Because of the special focus on instructional issues, teacher workshops are only for educators of K–12 students.

Evening for Educators

Friday, March 20; 5:30–7:30 p.m., begin in DIA Lecture Hall

American Chronicles: The Art of Norman Rockwell and Service Learning

- See how Norman Rockwell’s images inspired Americans from WWII to the 1960s Civil Rights Movement
- Discuss how to meet the new High School Service Learning requirement with David Hales, Wayne RESA Social Studies consultant
- Learn how to prepare students for civic life outside of school with Kari Pardoe from Learning to Give
- Supports Social Studies and Visual Arts Standards
- Recommended for middle and high school teachers
- Includes admission to the exhibition, a $14 value
- Includes admission to the DIA Friday Night Live! and special programs for all ages, 6–10 p.m.

Member fee: $15; nonmember fee: $20

Pre-service teacher fee: $10

Saturday Workshop

Saturday, March 28; 9 a.m.–3:30 p.m., meet in Farnsworth entrance lobby

American Chronicles: The Art of Norman Rockwell and Primary Resources

- Long before the Core Democratic Values curriculum, see how Norman Rockwell’s “Four Freedoms” posters inspired Americans during World War II
- Includes private tour of the exhibition
- David Hales, Wayne RESA Social Studies consultant, shows how Rockwell’s images are primary and secondary resources that support your teaching
- Sample the DIA’s American Art tour and classroom talk with Jennifer Williams, DIA educator
- Supports Social Studies and Visual Arts Standards
- Recommended for upper elementary, middle, and high school teachers
- Includes exhibition admission, a $14 value

Member fee: $40; nonmember fee: $50

Pre-service teacher fee: $25

SB-CEU credit is available.