DIA COLLECTION CROSSWORD
(recommended for ages 8 and up)

Water by Jan van Kessel the Elder, 1660–1670. Detroit Institute of Arts.

The DIA’s Weekly Crossword features clues that are answered by picking out details from a work of art from our collection. To solve this week’s puzzle, you’ll have to look closely at Jan van Kessel the Elder’s Water.
DOWN
1. Many of the creatures in this painting need ____ to live.
2. What kind of animal do you see most in this artwork?
5. It has one fish between its teeth and another fish under its paw. What is it?
7. What kind of animal are you looking for in 3 Across?
9. Unlike the answer to 5 Down, I have front flippers instead of paws. What am I?

ACROSS
3. Unlike the answer to number 8 Across, my wings help me fly. How many of me are there flying in the sky? (Look closely, some are very small!)
4. What do you call the place where the river and land meet?
6. What’s the curved opening in the rock called?
8. Some waddling birds are meeting across the river. What are they?
10. I swim like a snake and kind of look like one too. I might even be able to shock you. What am I?
