The DIA’s Weekly Crossword features clues that are answered by picking out details from a work of art from our collection. To solve this week's puzzle, you’ll have to look closely at Robert S. Duncanson’s Ellen’s Isle, Loch Katrine.
This type of water body, aka a lake in Scotland.

The subject of this painting, generally speaking.

How you might describe this weather—not sunny but not overcast.

The boats on the water are more specifically termed _______.

The foreground of the painting is dominated by this, a botanical term.

This star is reflected on the water’s surface.

ACROSS

2 This type of water body, aka a lake in Scotland.
5 The subject of this painting, generally speaking.
7 How you might describe this weather—not sunny but not overcast.
9 The boats on the water are more specifically termed _______.
11 The foreground of the painting is dominated by this, a botanical term.
12 This star is reflected on the water’s surface.

DOWN

1 The number of boats on the water.
3 The name of the New York waterway used to describe the school of painting that inspired the artist’s style.
4 The short term for the waterlocked landform visible in its entirety.
6 These landforms rise in the background.
8 Several of these dot the beachy shoreline.
10 The sun is partially hidden by one of these.

mountains 6 rocks 10 cloud

ACROSS: 2 loch. 5 landscape. 7 partlycloudy. 9 canoes. 11 flora. 12 sun.

DOWN: 1 two. 3 hudsonriver. 4 isle. 6 port. 7 tides. 9 rocks. 10 cloud.