DIA WEEKLY CROSSWORD
(recommended for ages 8 and up)

Bank of the Oise at Auvers by Vincent van Gogh, 1890. Detroit Institute of Arts.

The DIA's Weekly Crossword features clues that are answered by picking out details from a work of art from our collection. To solve this week's puzzle, you'll have to look closely at Vincent van Gogh's

Bank of the Oise at Auvers.
What clothing item do all the people in the painting have in common?
One person in the painting is wearing pants and a jacket. What are the other two people wearing?
What's on the water next to the boat in the front?
What's behind the people on the shore?

ACROSS:
1. How many people do you see?
2. How many people do you see?
3. What two colors are used most in this painting? Write or type them in alphabetical order.
4. One person in the painting is wearing pants and a jacket. What are the other two people wearing?
5. How many boats are different from the colors you answered for 3 down?
6. Only one boat has an extra part. What's the extra part called?
7. What's on the water next to the boat in the front?
8. What's behind the people on the shore?