The DIA’s Weekly Crossword features clues that are answered by picking out details from a work of art from our collection. To solve this week’s puzzle, you’ll have to look closely at Ik-Joong Kang’s Happy World - Scattered Crumbs. View the artwork online at dia.org/dia-collection-crossword to zoom in on specific areas.
ACROSS
1 Hail me! The checker version of this NYC staple.
5 There’s a ship, propelled by these.
7 Remember T9? It was useful for typing when this part of a cellphone was made of buttons.
9 This tool could tell you how wide the artwork is.
12 The Chinese name of this black and white symbol of harmony.
14 2 down has twin with two different colors. Enter them alphabetically.
15 This tool makes a “clear” cut.

DOWN
2 Circles in orange, purple, green, pink, and ____.
3 This artwork is made up of 225 individual ______.
4 Named for a celestial body, this traditional Korean ceramic vessel repeats more than any other image.
6 Lady liberty appears this many times.
8 The instrument spanning three squares belongs to what family?
9 No time for a picnic, these plushy animals are on the clock.
10 Org. represented here by an airplane.
11 This tree named for the front of your hand.
13 These fruits appear in a bunch, twice.