Michigan’s Great Lakes Self Guide

1. Find a picture that reminds you of something you have seen before. Look at this photograph for a couple of minutes.
   - Describe the picture in front of you.
   - What details in this picture remind you of something you have seen or experienced?

2. Find a picture that makes you feel calm and peaceful.
   - What about this picture makes you feel calm? Focus on one detail.
   - If you could jump into this photograph, what might you do once there?

3. None of these photographs have people in them, but what evidence can you find of the impact people have had on the Great Lakes?